ST. MARY’S HOME ANNOUNCES BOARD OFFICERS

NORFOLK, Va. (July 13, 2015) — Nancy Wilcox, senior leader and national sales trainer for NYR Organic, is the new president of the Board of Directors of the nonprofit St. Mary’s Home, which cares for children and young adults with severe disabilities.

St. Mary’s Home also announced other officers selected this spring to serve a two-year term:

- Sharon S. Goodwyn, labor and employment counsel with Hunton & Williams, moved from secretary to vice president of St. Mary’s Board.
- George L. Consolvo of Kaufman & Canoles, P.C., who is nationally recognized for his tax-exempt finance law practice, continues his long service as treasurer.
- H. Gregory Kilduff, who is retired, is the new secretary.

As Board president, Wilcox succeeds Thomas W. Godfrey Jr., president of Colonna’s Shipyard, who remains on St. Mary’s Board as immediate past president. Wilcox, who previously was vice president of St. Mary’s Board of Directors, also is a longtime member of the Auxiliary Board of St. Mary’s Home, a group of dedicated women who strive to fill needs the Home otherwise cannot meet.

Continuing to serve as directors of St. Mary’s Home are: Carl M. Albero of Colonna’s Shipyard, Inc.; Michael P. Cotter, trustee, U. S. Bankruptcy Court; Clare Davison, who also is president of St. Mary’s Auxiliary Board; Richard N. Knapp, Quick180; Vincent A. Napolitano, Napolitano Homes; Alvin J. Schexnider, Ph.D, Schexnider & Associates, LLC; and Allen “Trey” Hardin White III, D.D.S., Oceanfront Dentistry.
About St. Mary’s Home: St. Mary’s Home in Norfolk provides around-the-clock, specialized residential care for about 100 Virginia children and young adults with multiple, severe disabilities. With the opening of The Albero House at St. Mary’s in 2013 to provide care for adults 22 and over, St. Mary’s Home has shortened its name from St. Mary’s Home for Disabled Children.
