ROBYN JONES JOINS ST. MARY’S HOME AS CONTROLLER

NORFOLK, Va. (July 25, 2019) — Robyn Jones, CPA, is the new controller of the nonprofit St. Mary’s Home.

“I’m excited to join an organization with such a strong passion and dedication to improving the lives of individuals with disabilities,” Jones said. “St. Mary’s Home is a great place doing great things.”

Previously, Jones worked on the finance and accounting team at Sentara Healthcare for seven years. Before that, she worked in public accounting at Dixon Hughes Goodman, LLP.

Jones earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration and a master’s degree in accounting from East Carolina University.

Jones succeeds Laura Godfrey, CPA, who is leaving St. Mary’s Home to pursue other interests.

About St. Mary’s Home: St. Mary’s Home in Norfolk provides around-the-clock care for 88 Virginia children and 12 adults with disabilities. For more information, visit www.SaintMarysHome.org.
