

About

- Serve children and young adults from throughout Virginia who have severe intellectual and physical disabilities
- 24/7 clinical care, difficult to achieve at home
- Long-term residential and short-stay care
- 300-plus employees

Residents

- Up to 88 residents, newborn to 21, at St. Mary's Home
- Plus 12 residents over 21 at The Albergo House for adults on St. Mary's campus (opened in 2013)
- Birth disorders, traumatic accidents, illness, child abuse
- Referred by hospitals, physicians, social workers, community service boards, teachers, families

Services

- Facility-run occupational, physical, speech and recreational therapies
- Regular exams by specialists from Children's Hospital of The King's Daughters and EVMS
- Infant and Toddler Program, with infant massage
- Summer camps, year-round activities and community outings

Features

- Four courtyards, including sensory and butterfly gardens, hydrotherapy pool and playground with specially adapted equipment
- Atrium for sports and activities
- Beautifully landscaped grounds, including gazebo
- Centrally located – easy access to beaches, theme parks

Education

- Eight educational classrooms
- Partnership with Southeastern Cooperative Educational Programs
- Classes onsite led by master's-prepared teachers, or in public schools as requested
- Virginia Alternative Assessments, alternative to Standards of Learning for public schools

Costs

- Covered by Medicaid, with additional funding by United Way, grants, individual, corporate and municipal donations, and St. Mary's Foundation

H. Wayne Jones, CEO
Joseph Toland, M.D., North Shore Pediatrics, St. Mary's Medical Director
Jean Shelton, M.D., EVMS, St. Mary's Medical Director-Therapy Services
Nabil T. Tadros, M.D., Long Term Care of Virginia, The Albergo House Medical Director

For more information:
Christine Parker, MSW
Director of Social Work
757.622.2208 ext. 321
cparker@smhdc.org